DR. S. RANGASWAMI IYENGAR

"DIABETES SPECIALIST."

RARE AND INVALUABLE SPECIFIC FOR THE CURE OF "DIABETES."

After resuming his Practice for the last two months, on his return from Madras Dr. S. R. Iyengar has completely cured many "DIABETES PATIENTS." Of the many who had taken "SPECIAL TREATMENT" of his advice and medicine, for complete cure. The following few are the new two gentlemens certificates:—

Mr. Vithaldas P. Attawala merchant, Bambay writes on 29-11-20:—It gives me sincere pleasure to be able to testify to the great intelligence, ability, above all charming manners of Dr. S. R. Iyengar's Medicinal Drugs—" I was suffering from Diabetes for the last 16 years and had tried many Doctors of Bombay but without any effect. I then put myself under the treatment of the said Doctor S. R. Iyengar and he prescribed a course of 45 days for me and that I was completely cured at the end of the course. Before I commenced Dr. Iyengar's treatment, my urine was examined by a Bombay M.D., the percentage of Sugar was more than 4 per cent. After the treatment, my urine was examined on 25th November, 1920 at Dr. Masina Hospital, Pathelogical Laboratory of Bombay "Sugar was found Nil"—which means a perfect cure of the obstinate disease which had baffled the treatment of many Doctors and Physicians before. I really consider that Dr. S. Rangaswami Iyengar is a SPECIALIST in this disease. I recommend him to all suffering from the bad disease for the rare quality and of his valuable Drugs."

Mr. Damodher Raghoba Raote, Worli, Bombay writes on 3rd December 1920:—"I was suffering from Diabetes for the last 12 years and I tried many well known Doctors and M.D.3. during that period but could not get entire cure. In September last, I had a severe attach of Pneumonia which seriously affected my Diabetes disease and was under the treatment of Dr. Masina. I was cured of Pneumonia after a short time but my Diabetes disease was in an increasing state and I could get no relief. Dr. Masina examined my urine and found I was passing 6 to 7 per cent. sugar and specific gravity was 1037. Finding no relief at all, I was put under treatment of Dr. S. Rangaswami Iyengar, Specialist in Diabetes. I have much pleasure to say that after a special treatment of 35 days I found my Diabetes disease properly checked and sugar nil and specific Gravity 1012. "I can safely recommend Dr. Iyengar's specific to any of the suffering Diabetes patients."

This valuable medicine is used in large quantities not only by our Rajas, Maharajas, Nawabs and many of the nobility, aristocracy and gentry in this Country, but it is greatly patronized by people in all countries of Europe, America, Asia and Africa. It is needless to expatiate upon the magical qualities of this our invaluable medicine. We recommend it especially to those persons who desire to tone the nervous system, to strengthen the body refresh the memory, and to guard against debility, suffice it to say that the use of this medicine is recommended to those who have any faith in the Ayurvedic medicines. FOR THE FIRST TIME IN BOMBAY!

The Third Series of the World-renowned Tarzan Stories

The Momentous Moving Drama that all Bombay is waiting for with bated breath.

The Return of Tarzan

8 Reels--9,000 feet!

Presented by Messrs. K. D. and Brothers.

"The Return of Tarzan"

The gayety of Parisian society, the dizzy whirl of that city's famous underworld, the drama of sun frought Algerian deserts, the conflict of men of might aboard a huge ocean-liner, the savagery, mystery and thrilling romance of the African jungle, all mingled into the playground of this story.

You see the King of Lions in a distinctly new and fascinating role. You see him once again, amidst his primutive elements—coddling with apes, battling with lions, toying with wild elephants.

Tarzan requires no super-relatives to recommend him to the public.

"The Return of Tarzan"

A cast of recognised players headed by Gene Pollar includes Walter Miller, Kerla Schramm, Armound Cortez, George Romain, Estelle Taylor, Donna, Ramivez, Peggy Hannon and many jungle actors.

"The Return of Tarzan" by virtue of its story vogue, remarkable production, selected cast, superb direction and notable photography is the greatest attraction in screen circles to-day.

The latest of the Edgar Rice Burrough's stories of the mighty ape-man has been made into screen lore by Numa Pictures Corporation.

Proposed by Mr. P. M. Ghose.
Seconded by Mr. J. S. Farrell.
(Carried unanimously).

The Chairman then read the Notice convening the Meeting, the following documents were laid on the table:—

(1) Certificate of incorporation of the Company.
(2) Certificate as to situation of the Registered Office of the Company.
(3) Prints of the Company's Memorandum and Articles of Association.
(4) Certificate as to commencement of business.
(5) Prints of the Managing Agents' preliminary review of the activities of the Company.
(6) Company's Share Register.
(7) List of Directors.
(8) List of Members of the Company.
(9) Statutory Report.

The Chairman requests Mr. Ghose to read out on his behalf the following letters raising objections to the Statutory Report which were also placed on the table, viz:—

(a) Two original letters from Mr. Jivanlal Premchand Sah to the Managing Agents dated 10th and 23rd November 1920.
(b) Copy of Messrs. Watkins & Co's. letter to the said Mr. Jivanlal Premchand Sah dated 17th November 1920.
(c) Original letter from Mr. Ramubhai R. Mehta, Pleader, Ahmedabad, together with enclosures thereof date 25th November, 1920.

Mr. B. K. Mozumdar enquires if the Ahmedabad Shareholders who have objected to the passing of Statutory Report as mentioned in the above letters are present at the Meeting personally or by proxy.

The Chairman states that these Shareholders are not present personally or by proxy but, nevertheless he invites the shareholders present to say so, if they want any explanation on the points raised by the Ahmedabad Shareholders.

Mr. Abas pointed out that the Credit and Debit sides of the account given in the Report do not balance, the difference being Rs. 1,55,864-14-11 and asks for an explanation. He further enquired whether this difference had been invested in the interest of the Company.

Mr. Johnson of Messrs. Viney and Thurston, Auditors, at the request of the Chairman pointed out that the account shows only the receipts and disbursements on Capital account as required by Section 77 of the Indian Companies' Act. He added that from the account books of the Company which had been audited for the purpose of the Statutory Report, he was able to certify that the said sum of Rs. 1,55,864-14-11 had been absorbed in the Company's trading. The first Balance Sheet when published would show the details of how the amounts received by the Company have been utilized.

After some further discussion Mr. Abas states that he was satisfied with the explanation given and he then moves that the Statutory Report be passed.

Resolved that the Statutory Report as published be accepted and passed.

Proposed by Mr. F. Abas.
Seconded by Mr. J. N. Mookerjee.
(Carried unanimously).

With a vote of thanks to the Chair the proceedings terminated.

Proposed by Mr. J. S. Farrell.
Seconded by Mr. B. N. Banerjee.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

BORA ADAMJI PEERBHOY'S YOUNG EST SON PEERBHOY was at Gwalior during the race season. On October 30th 1920, he sent Habibulla Baberchi to call Abdulhusein Kaderbhoy Sakin. Palahusein, son of Abdulhusein went with Habibulla to the Grand Hotel to meet Peerbhoy. After some conversation, he gave a cheque No. D. O. 13176, dated 30-10-20, of The Central Bank of India of Rs. Twenty-five hundred to Fidahusein. The cheque was signed by Mr. Peerbhoy with Abdulhusein Kaderbhoy's name. He then said to Fidahusein, 'To-day is race and I urgently need money. Le one knows me in Laskar, you sell this cheque and send money with Habibulla.' We, seeing Habibulla in this affair, sold the cheque to Krishnaram Baldeo Bank Sarafa Lashkar and obtained the money for Peerbhoy.

The cheque was not accepted at the Bank in Bombay and neither Peerbhoy nor his residence was found. His four brothers Mahomedbhoy, Ebharambhoy, Karimbhoy and Alibhoy were not able to give any news about him.

We had to make arrangement with Baldeo Bank for the money. In this way Rs. twenty-five hundred are obtained by Habibulla and Peerbhoy by fraud.

Now any one who will inform me about the whereabouts of Peerbhoy, I shall thank him and give him a reward of Rs. Twenty-five.

QUADRANGULAR CRICKET.

HINDUS' BIG SCORE.

PARSIS' POOR DISPLAY.

Hindus—First Innings	428
Parsis— (for 9 wkts.)	211

The different "shamianas", tents and stands were crowded to their utmost capacity when the final match of the Quadrangular cricket tournament between the Parsis and the Hindus was resumed yesterday, the number of the spectators being over fifteen thousand during the closing stages of the day's game. And an extremely interesting day's sport they had. First, the Hindus increased their overnight total by 70, the score eventually reaching the huge total of 428. Then the Parsis, going in to bat, made a disastrous start, losing six of their best bats for a paltry 75, but subsequently made a fine recovery, being able to add over a hundred runs for the next three wickets, and had made 211 for 9 wickets when stumps were drawn for the day. It was an interesting and exciting day's game, and the cheering and the counter-cheering was louder than on the preceding day.

PARSIS' DISASTROUS START.

The Hindus deserve to be congratulated on the huge total of 428 which they piled up. In reply to this big score, the Parsis were able to make only 211 and have now only one wicket in hand. The game thus stands in a very interesting position. The Parsis have still to make 67 runs to save a "follow on", and the question is: "Will they be able to do it?" Of course there is nothing inherently impossible in the task and plucky fighters as they are they may yet be able to avert that possibility. But it is rather a difficult task, with one of their last pair unable to bat properly on account of the injury sustained by him on the knee whilst fielding on the first day of the match, and the freshened Hindu attack in the morning. If they are able to achieve the herculean task set them, the match should in all probability result in a draw; if they are not, then the Hindus should stand a very good chance of winning the tournament championship this year. It is expected to be a very keen struggle that will take place to-day.

POOR BATTING DISPLAY.

With the single exception of Vajifdar, the top Parsi batsmen cut a sorry figure indeed yesterday. All their big guns, with the exception mentioned above, failed to come off and had it not been for the plucky fight made by him the score might not have reached even three figures. The first two wickets fell for 2 runs and six men were dismissed for 75. Then however a good stand was made by Vajifdar and Bahadur Kapadia who added 43 for the seventh wicket, followed by another good stand for the ninth wicket by Vajifdar and Daruwala who put on 50. It was Vajifdar's innings and these two stands that saved the side from complete collapse. The Hindu bowlers bowled well and maintained a good length throughout the Parsi innings, but it does not sufficiently excuse the utter failure of the early Parsi batsmen.

VAJIFDAR'S GREAT INNINGS.

Vajifdar's plucky effort was beyond all praise. It was a great innings of which the greatness cannot be adequately measured merely by the figures of it, big as they were. Achieved under most disheartening circumstances, it argues a stout heart for the batsman that he should have hit up his century when his side was going to pieces, when he saw his colleagues at the other end falling like nine pins before Rana and Joshi and when he had to meet a strong attack encouraged by its early successes. It was under these circumstances that he achieved the much-coveted distinction of a three-figure score yesterday. Going in third wicket down at 23, he batted right through the rest of the Parsi innings and was unbeaten with 116 to his credit when stumps were drawn for the day. A word of praise is also due to the later Parsi batsmen—B. Kapadia, Daruwala and Kanga—for keeping their end up to enable Vajifdar to raise the side's score at the other end.

DARUWALA IN FINE FORM.

In the Hindus' first innings, Daruwala was the most successful bowler on the Parsi side. He was responsible for the downfall of no less than seven batsmen and the cost at which he sent them back was only 22 runs each—a highly creditable performance in an innings in which the opposing side piled up 428 runs. Bahadur Kapadia's work behind the stumps was also a remarkable achievement. In an innings extending over a day and more, the big score of 428 included only one bye and that too was a leg-bye for which he cannot be held responsible; and in addition he caught two men and stumped a like number.

DETAILS OF THE GAME.

At 11-35 a.m., the overnight not-outs Jai and Shivram resumed the Hindus' first innings, and the former with two singles sent up 360 on the board, Jai responding by finely hitting Daruwala to the western bounudary. This was quickly followed by 370 and Jai reached his half century amid cheering. Ten runs later, Shivram was held in the slips by Bhapu off Daruwala (380—7—8). Joshi filled the vacancy and cut Daruwala for 4. Bhapu relieved Vatcha and with his first delivery had Jai caught at wicket by B. Kapadia. The out-going batsman, who was playing in representative matches for the first time, had shown fine cricket for his 56. (384—8—56.) His place was taken by Rana, who and his colleague Joshi hit out. 390 was signalled and then Rana skied Daruwala but Reporter in the long field dropped him. A little later there was tremendous cheering on Joshi telegraphing the fourth century by sending Bhapu to the boundary. Rana then stepped out of the crease to slash at Daruwala and was finely stumped by B. Kapadia (401—9—7). Baloo was cheered on coming out of the pavilion to fill the vacancy. Vajifdar, who now relieved Daruwala, was despatched by Joshi to the boundary while Baloo got a two off him. 410 appeared on the board. Three boundaries were hit off Bhapu's next over and then Baloo was smartly stumped by B. Kapadia off Bhapu, the Hindus' first innings terminating at 12-30 p.m. with the total at 428. (428—10—7).

PARSIS' FIRST INNINGS.

The Parsis entered upon their first innings at 12-40 p.m., Driver and Elavia facing the Hindu attack delivered by Rana and Joshi. They opened disastrously, Rana with his fourth delivery scattering Driver's wickets before a single had been scored (0-1-0). B. Kapadia joined Elavia, whom Joshi completely beat with a well-pitched delivery (2-2-0). Gandhi now stepped into the breach. Runs came in mostly in singles, the batsmen playing a watchful game in view of the fine length kept up by Rana and Joshi. The first ten appeared on the board, some time later followed by 20. Two runs later, the Parsi side met with the greatest disaster that could befall them, D. K. Kapadia playing one of Joshi's deliveries into the hands of Baloo at mid-off (23-3-10). Vajifdar joined Gandhi, and some singles brought up 30 on the board. The latter then hit Joshi for 4. The Parsis had made 35 for 3 wickets at 1-30 p.m. when play was adjoined for lunch.

WICKETS FALL CHEAPLY.

On resuming after lunch, Vajifdar cut Rana for 4 and next drove him for a like number. Some singles followed, and in the bowler's next over Gandhi cut him to the boundary but was shortly after finely held at wicket by Navle, (53—4—26). Chothia, the next man in, cut both Joshi and Rana for 4 and then dropped in the slips by Shivram, Ra... ring. He however did not long survive this chance for in Joshi's next over he was held by Vithal in the slips (64—5—6). Bhapu who now filled the vacancy had made only 6 when he was held in the slips by Naidu off Rana (75—6—6). B. Kapadia now became associated with Vajifdar, who hitting Joshi to the western boundary sent up 80 on the board, which was shortly after followed by 90, and then sending Rana twice to the boundary, Vajifdar signalled the century amid cheering.

VAJIFDAR'S CENTURY.

Baloo was now entrusted with the attack in place of Rana at the northern end, and Vajifdar with a single off Joshi reached his half century amid cheering. 110 next appeared on the board and eight runs later B. Kapadia ran himself out. (118—7—12).

Vatcha joined Vajifdar and Shivram relieved Joshi. Vatcha when he had made 4 was missed by Dalvi off Baloo. At 135, Vatcha skied Shivram and was held by Pai at mid-off. (135—8—5).

Play was adjourned for tea at 4 p.m., and on resuming, Vajifdar, who was now joined by Daruwala, cut Baloo for a single. His own score at this stage was 70. Daruwala cut Rana for 4 and enabled 150 to appear on the board, followed shortly after by 160 and 170, to which Vajifdar's contribution was 80. Vajifdar increased his contribution to 90 and as he was nearing his century every stroke of his was wildly cheered. He at this stage gave a very difficult chance off Joshi, Shivram missing him in the slips. He now wanted 6 more to make his century. At 185 Shivram broke through Daruwala's defence. (185—19).

Kanga, the Parsi skipper, who had received an injury to his knee on the previous day, now came in with a substitute to run for him. Vajifdar then reached his century amid loud and prolonged cheering.

Some singles came in and then Vajifda with another single hoisted the second century amid cheering. The Parsis had mad 211 runs for 9 wickets at 5-30 p.m., when stumps were drawn for the day.

(REUTER'S CRICKET SPECIAL.)

BRISBANE, Dec. 6.
Recd. 10-40 a.m., Dec. 7.

The match between the M. C. C. and an Australian Eleven was concluded to-day and resulted in a draw rather in favour of the visitors. The Australians with five wickets to fall in the second innings were eighty runs on. The weather was sultry and oppressive and when the game was resumed in the presence of four thousand spectators. Oxenham fielded for Collins as the latter had been affected by heat and shortly before the close of the English innings Waddington also suffered temporarily from the same cause.

Wilson and Waddington made an unexpectedly profitable stand for the tenth wicket which had added 97 runs when McAndrew secured Wilson's wicket. The M. C. C. thus secured a lead of 102. Hornibrook was the most successful bowler for the Australians his four wickets costing exactly twenty runs each. McAndrew took two for 98, Trenerry two for 78, Marsden one for 45; Macartney nought for 23 and Armstrong nought for 20.

Carter and Tozer gave the Australians a very good start in their second innings and the deficit had been almost wiped out before the first wicket fell at 93, and although Moore left at the same total, their partnership destroyed any chance of the match being finished and the stumps were drawn when the Australians had scored 182 for five.

Hitch took one for 40, Waddington nought for 26, Rhodes three for 52, Fender nought for 37, Woolley one for 17 and Douglas nought for nought.

CASE AGAINST STRIKERS.

DY. COMMISSIONER'S EVIDENCE.

Mr. A. H. S. Aston, Chief Presidency Magistrate, resumed the hearing of the case in which Keshao Govind and 36 other strikers were charged with being members of an unlawful assembly and with disobeying the orders of the Magistrate.

Inspector Finan conducted the prosecution and Mr. K. F. Nariman, Mr. Dhunjishaw and Mr. Ginwalla defended the accused.

Mr. Cecil Lynche-Blosse, Deputy Commissioner of Police, was then cross-examined by Mr. Nariman. He said the only disorderly thing about the crowd was that while Mr. Oliviera was speaking to them one or two of the men were talking to the crowd. Witness was standing with Mr. Oliviera and the Commissioner. In his estimate the crowd was of about 150/20 men. He could not say how many of them were strikers and how many of them were onlookers. The actual crowd moving was of about 100 men. Witness was present when Mr. Oliviera ordered the people to disperse. He could not say whether Mr. Oliviera addressed the crowd in Marathi or Hindustani but it was not in English. The Commissioner told him that the orders for dispersal had been passed by the magistrate and that those who disobeyed them should be arrested. He himself did not hear the orders. He admitted there was a good deal of confusion at the time. He did not know that he had powers to disperse a crowd; at any rate the Commissioner had the power to do so. As far as he could say, the crowd was the same at Dhobi Talao as that which left the maidan. He could see most of the crowd, but he was not in a position to say whether any persons joined the crowd afterwards.

This closed the prosecution evidence.

DEFENCE EVIDENCE.

Abaji Sambhaji, a peon in the employ of Tullockchand and Shapurji for the last nine years, said on the day in question he and another were coming from Grant Road. Witness was going to his office and accused No. 26 met him at Girgaum.

At this stage one of the accused, an old man, was seen sitting by the magistrate, and he was asked to stand up. The accused said he was a weak man and old and was unable to stand. The magistrate said as he had been standing these many days, he should continue doing so.

Continuing witness said he knew accused No. 26 since the last two years.

Cross-examined by Mr. Finan, witness said he some times attended his office late. He was arrested and then let off because he was not a striker.

MR. PANDIT'S EVIDENCE.

Mr. R. S. Pandit, barrister, said in reply to Mr. Nariman, he went up to the maidan on hearing some disturbance. The attitude of the crowd was quiet when Mr. Oliviera was addressing; there was no disturbance. Witness spoke to the crowd after Mr. Oliviera had spoken and asked them to disperse. He remembered accused No. 1 asking the crowd to disperse and go home quietly. He seemed to be the leader of the crowd. After he spoke the crowd dispersed. His estimate of the crowd was that there were 500 to 1000 men in it.

To Mr. Finan: He heard a commotion going on from the windows of the bar library, before Mr. Oliviera had arrived. The tram cars were standing and most of them were deserted. It appeared to witness that the men were moving away in a body, because he heard the Commissioner tell his officers to see the crowd off the maidan. He thought the crowd was hesitating after the Magistrate's order.

After hearing some further evidence the case was adjourned.

THE BOMBAY CHRONICLE.

THE LILLIPUTIANS.

The cablegram from "our own Correspondent", in Paris, which we published yesterday, regarding the discussions on the subject of revision of the Turkish Treaty calls for some comment. It runs as follows:

> France and Italy are urging a revision of the Turkish Treaty and the restoration of Thrace and Smyrna to Turkey: Lord Curzon, who represents th British Non-Conformist conscience is opposing fanatically, determined to destroy the Muslim Empire and the nation.

Lord Curzon has been said to represent many things, but never we believe, before has anybody thought of claiming that he represents the British Non-Conformist conscience. "Our own Correspondent," in his manifest indignatio and excitement, must have abrogate thought before he could have put fort so absurd a statement. In his youth Oxford, the "superior person" was accepted as the type of a serene, contemptuous aristocracy. But the ideals o aristocracy, in an individual, ca hardly survive the base expedients an low aims of modern politics and so, as natural consequence of his embracin the political career, Lord Curzon has be come the type of cynical bureaucracy which no more represents the Non-Conformist than it does the Muslim conscience. Many people—Muslims mor particularly—have been puzzled by the change which they observe in Lord Curzon's representative attitude to-day fror that which he assumed when he wa Viceroy of India. The explanation, we believe, is simple. Lord Curzon was then the representative of the views of th India Office bureaucracy, he is now re presents those of the Foreign Office bureaucracy; the latter are in some important respects diametricall opposed to the former, hence the volte face of which the Muslim world accuse Curzon.

That Lord Curzon has a conscience no body can doubt; a harder or more conscientious worker, probably, does not exist; but in the sphere of politics it is a bureaucratic conscience confined within the sphere of departmental routine. For the Foreign Office the destruction of Turkey has long ranked as a matter of routine to be accomplished in due course. The Turkish Revolution settled it, for there was always some affection for the Hamidian regime which in many respects was akin to the F. O. The fall of Czarist Russia made no difference, for innumerable inter-European "conversations," and agreements had been entered into, covering the whole Ottoman Empire; and such conversations and agreements are more sacred to the pukka bureaucrat than public pledges, or acknowledged rights of nations, or any moral considerations whatsoever. For the Foreign Office, during the last quarter of a century at least, Asia with the exception of Japan, has had no political existence on a par with that of European countries. She existed solely as a field for European exploitation. Persia could be dominated. China could be left to die a natural death, but Turkey was too virile since her Revolution, so must be destroyed. And Asia was asleep. They bound her down with Lilliputian bonds of secret international agreement, and then, in the Treaty of Sevres, struck at her head. Then Asia woke and struggled and they were alarmed. Some of the myriads of little cords are broken but enough still hold to give the Lilliputians hope sufficient to maintain the struggle. Lord Curzon is the life-size spokesman of all the Lilliputians; that is all. It would be more true to say that he typifies at the moment "the Satanic Nature of Government" (denounced by Mr. Gandhi) than that he represents "the British Non-Conformist conscience," which at least is no mere matter of routine.

That the Non-Conformist conscience is behind the Foreign Office in demanding the destruction of the Turks is true, but it is so from a sincere conviction, based on false or partial information, Lord Curzon and the Foreign Office know the truth, but think it "inexpedient" to divulge it, in the interests of European policy. They are entirely conscientious and consistent within the limits of the policy of their Department. The Non-Conformists could be converted by a demonstration of the truth; the Foreign Office never. It is no use naming Asiatic rights or feelings to the latter, for they do not recognise them. But the British Empire is not solely European, as the foreign policy of England seems to presuppose. It is largely Asiatic; and if the Asiatic part of it has not been duly represented in the Empire's policy, the Anglo-Indian Government of India and the India Office must be held to blame for their submission to the Foreign Office against the will of India and all Asia. That submission makes it also impossible for us, as representing Indian feeling, to appeal to them upon this question. But we may say that it would be a good thing both for Asia and for the Empire if, now that the Turkish question is again upon the tapis, they assumed a more uncompromising attitude than heretofore towards the cool presumptions of the Foreign Office; and we may express our earnest hope that they are doing so.

CALCUTTA UNIVERSITY.

If the financial condition of the oldest and premier Indian university is really as grave as is depicted by Sir Asutosh Mookerjee, it hardly redounds to the credit of either the public of Bengal or the Government of India, which is ultimately responsible for its existence, at least in its present form. Even shorn, as it now is, of the institutions which have gone to evolve the sister University of Patna, the Calcutta University continues to be by far the largest university in the world, if the size of the university is to be measured by its annual output of graduates or the number of institutions affiliated to it. That such a great institution should be on the brink of disaster is most deplorable, especially when a new era, which is pregnant with immense possibilities, is dawning on the country. Sir Asutosh has pointed out some of the causes that have led to the depletion of the resources of the University. The Patna University appears to have proved a veritable last straw on the camel's back. Sir Asutosh, we note, still regrets that his proposal to raise the examination fees and thus fill the empty coffers, did not commend itself to the Government of India. We know that in making such a strange and entirely unpopular proposal Sir Asutosh was inspired by no Curzonian motive to make education costly to the children of the land, but was moved solely by a desire to find a way to save his beloved Alma Mater from financial ruin. Even now we are unconvinced that the situation is so desperate that it cannot be saved except by resorting to this course. There are two ways by which the situation can be retrieved. Either the Government of India should come forward with a liberal grant to relieve the financial pressure to a material extent or means should be found to rouse the public conscience of Bengal to a sense of its obligation to the one agency which more than any other has been responsible for the evolution of modern Bengal. It must be a matter of deep humiliation to the people of the province, which counts more millionaire zemindars and other persons of substance than any other province, and which is, in point of education and enlightenment, ahead of other provinces, that its university should be so poorly endowed. If the institution becomes less officialised than it is at present and becomes a truly popular temple of learning, then, perhaps, we may hope to witness a universal response in Bengal to the call of the Alma Mater. But, even as it is, the public of Bengal ought to come forward promptly and respond generously to the appeal of Sir Asutosh to save the institution from the calamity which is threatening it.

Notes of the Day.

Too Late!

While Mr. Montagu is still deliberating how and when he should introduce his Burma Reforms Bill, the Burmese themselves appear to have definitely made up their minds to reject with contempt the glittering bauble which he is dangling before their eyes. The boycott of the elections by all sections of the people in Burma, excepting, of course, the European and Anglo-Indian elements, has been in many cases even more stringent than in India, and this without the presence of Mr. Gandhi and other leaders of the non-cooperation movement in their midst. Neither Sir Reginald Craddock's intimidation nor his flattery of the Burmese and his exhortation to them to keep aloof from the "Indian agitators" have availed to put a curb on the patriotic movement. The boycott of the Councils, is proceeding simultaneously with an economic boycott which is extending to all Western manufactures, including British. The movement is now spreading to the educational institutions and the latest development is the threatened boycott of the proposed Rangoon University. Thus Burma is rapidly coming into line with India and Ceylon. in their determination to refuse cooperation with the authorities except upon a truly democratic basis. Mr. Montagu's promise to make the Reforms in their new guise more acceptable to the Burmese comes too late to evoke any genuine gratitude among the latter. Whether in the case of India or of Ceylon or of Burma, the concessions whenever they have come, have come too late to be of any use or attraction.

Bulgars and Greeks in Thrace.

A Bulgarian correspondent in "The Near East," Mr. P. M. Mattheeff, objects to the statement of the Athens correspondent of that ever-temporising journal that: "according to information received from Kirk Kilisse, the leading Bulgarian citizens of that town, accompanied by a Bulgarian priest, visited the Greek Governor of the region and declared that all the Bulgarian families of Kirk Kilisse were desirous of reverting to the Greek Orthodox Church"; and sets against it the communication of a private correspondent of his own to this effect:—

> "A part of the Bulgarian population, on the advance of the Greeks, escaped into Bulgaria. The greater part, unwilling to sacrifice its possessions and hoping against hope, remained in the country. In Gumurdjina and Dedeagatch districts there are sixty unmixed Bulgarian villages with only one priest. This poor, devoted man performed his duties by travelling secretly by night from village to village. After repeated imprisonments and beatings, he was one day found murdered. The prominent men are repeatedly subjected to imprisonment and beatings, and complaints only bring further punishments; rare is the Bulgarian who has not undergone ill-treatment at the hands of the Greek police. ——, of Xanthi, was beaten so cruelly that the police authorities had to envelop the body in raw sheep skins until he recovered to return home." (The list of the cruelly ill-treated is too long for your columns, and the giving of it will only do further harm to those I would aid). "Many young men have simply disappeared, leaving no trace behind them. Bands are formed under selected leaders, which travel from village to village to 'baptise,' as the saying goes, Bulgarians into the Greek Patriarchate Church. The ceremonial of the 'baptism' is cruel beating until the extortion of a declaration or signature renouncing the National Church for the Greek. On August 30 last one leader of a band, Anghel, Kostov, a renegade sold to the Greeks, called upon all the Bulgarians in Xanthi to present themselves and receive baptism. Only a very few presented themselves. The authorities are careful to avoid extremes in towns where unsympathetic foreigners may be met."

Mr. Mattheeff adds: "Your readers may not be aware that the numerical strength of the Greeks, as proclaimed from the housetops, is not based upon the number of Greeks proper. The number of such is insignificant. They systematically claim as Greeks all who recognise the Greek Patriarchate Church within the old territories of the Turkish Empire in which the Greek Patriarch enjoyed great and special privileges—the Caucasian, the Laz of Trebizond, the Caraman of Central Asia Minor. The language of the two last is Turkish. . . Not many years ago the entire Bulgarian nation was known to the world as Greek, so long as it was subjected to the spiritual domination of the Greek Patriarch."

Patriarch or Exarch.

When the Bulgarians first came under the Turkish yoke, they had their own National Church in the Eastern or "Orthodox" system of National Churches. The Greeks by their intrigues at Constantinople, where they soon acquired great influence, persuaded the Porte that they were really of the same religion—which is true—and that it would simplify ecclesiastical discipline and also the administration of the Empire if they were brought directly under the Greek Patriarch. This was done accordingly and the Bulgarians passed as Greek for several centuries. Russia, the 'biyuk baba' of the Turkish Christians of her faith, did not object to this until the Greeks showed independence of her will, when she advised the Porte once more to recognise the Bulgarian National Church under its own ecclesiastical head or exarch, independent of the Patriarchate. That was a great encouragement to the Bulgarian nationalist movement then in its infancy. All the patriotic Bulgarians rallied to the National Church; and there were constant fights between them and the adherents of the Patriarch who had the support of Greece and spoke the Greek language. There is no doctrinal difference between the Churches. The dispute between them is upon the question of Church Government, which the Bulgars associate with their nationality, but the "Greeks" did not, till after the Hellenic Kingdom had embarked upon its present course of wild imperialism. The Greeks, by forcing the Bulgarians of Thrace to accept the jurisdiction of the Patriarch, are not making them change their religion, but abjure their nationality.

A Fruitless Journey.

The following advertisement has been appearing in the Bombay papers for some days past, and appeared in "The Chronicle" of the 6th inst.:—

> BOMBAY ELECTRIC SUPPLY AND TRAMWAYS CO., LTD.
> Wanted—Smart intelligent young men as "A" Class INSPECTORS. Salary Rs 65 to Rs. 80, plus 25 per cent. allowance: other conditions of service can be had on enquiry at the Office. Apply personally to the TRAFFIC SUPERINTENDENT.
> Bombay, 29th November, 1920.

On Dec. 3, Mr. V. A. Kulkarni of Jewari Bhuwan, Worli, called in person at the office and handed in his application to the Traffic Superintendent. He received in reply a type-written letter bearing the reference number J. 18 29/20, telling him that applicants must call in person. He told a number of his friends in Bombay and at a distance that application for the posts by letter was of no use, and four of his friends accordingly applied with him in person at the Traffic Superintendent's Office yesterday, but were curtly told there were no vacancies. Two of the young men had come from Poona, one from Harda, and the remaining two from Worli and Byculla respectively. They came to "The Chronicle" Office to lay their case before us, mentioning that the advertisement in answer to which their application was made had appeared in "The Chronicle" no later than the day before. There was no question of their qualifications or references. It seems to us that a mere refusal might just as well have been given through the post, and that if the vacant posts were filled up yesterday a notice to that effect should have been sent to the newspapers. We hope that the Tramway Company will take immediate steps to prevent other applicants from incurring the expense of useless journeys to Bombay.

Punished for his Clothes.

A cutting from a newspaper—"The Karnatak Mitra," Belgaum—has been sent to us describing a brutal assault alleged to have been committed upon the person of one of the scholars by the Headmaster of the Belgaum Sardars High School. We quote from it:—

> Last Tuesday when the Headmaster paid his usual visit to a class, he at once got irritated or rather lost his temper at the sight of a student who had dressed himself in a 'Khadi' shirt and a 'Khadi' cap. It passes comprehension why such a dress should excite the brutal propensities of the head of an educational institution! Probably the student might, on the contrary, have been rewarded with a Medal of Merit if he had dressed himself cap-a-pie in apish imitation of what is looked upon by men of this type as fashionable European style! Be that as it may, the Headmaster lost control over his senses to such an extent that he sent for a cane and administered about forty strokes with all his might and main. The impression created on the minds of the boys in the class was that just as Gen. Dyer of Amritsar ceased firing on the ammunition running short, the Head Master stopped only when the nerves of his right hand refused to work (though probably his mind was fully prepared for further castigation). We do not vouch for the absolute accuracy of the number of strokes administered but we are pretty certain that the number is approximately correct.

The Headmaster, we may add, for the information of readers of "The Chronicle," is an Indian gentleman so that the resemblance of his behaviour to that of General Dyer is the more regrettable. It is the interest, as well as the duty, of all patriotic Indians to put an end to this sort of tyranny by Indian masters over Indians who are in their power, which only gives a handle to their enemies.

A STUDY OF NON-CO-OPERATION.

BY S. E. STOKES,.

II.

Can India Undertake her own External Defence?

Although convinced that the only means by which the British Empire can hope to be profited by India will be found in following the policy noted above, we must reluctantly admit that at present there seems not the slightest probability of Great Britain doing any thing of the kind. As a consequence, and in default of that nobler solution of the problem, it is essential for us to discover some other escape from the present unsatisfactory relation in which the two races stand to each other.

ULTIMATE GOAL.

In the first section of this paper, I have stated my conviction, that to those who are working for the welfare of this land, the ultimate goal must be absolute Swaraj, unlimited by any Imperial connection, and the immediate aim the elimination forthwith of those aspects of the British connection which make for racial prestige in the rulers and the sense of racial inferiority in the people of India, together with the salvation of the latter from the oppressions of those petty officials, who, living secure in the confidence of having cut off their superiors from all human touch with the masses, grow fat at the expense of the common people. In other words, we must find a way to secure that, as long as the British remain in this land, it may not be upon a basis which assumes their racial superiority; neither in theory nor practice must they be permitted to arrogate to themselves rights or privileges not open to Indians; they must be held to all their promises; their lives, liberty, property and honour must be held no more sacred than those of Indians, they must justify their presence and the pay which they enjoy by evincing a genuine determination to overcome the excesses of their subordinates, instead of supinely permitting them to continue for lack of fearless and energetic action.

STRIKING AT ROOT OF EVILS.

It is at the root of these evils that Mr. Gandhi and his associates are attempting to strike. Their position is so well-known that it is needless to go into details. Suffice it to say that they seek by taking two wrongs committed by the British Imperial and the Indian Governments respectively, and by widely agitating against them, to compel the authorities to keep their word in the one case and do justice in the other. They imply that, if their just demands are not met, the British will altogether lose the confidence of the people of India and a further connection will not be acceptable. They propose to force the Government to seriously face these issues by a process of progressive Non-Co-operation with those in whose hands the administration of the country at present rests. Their programme implies, among other things, the awakening of the selfrespect of the masses by making them alive to the hardships and disabilities under which they at present labour, and advocates their organising to meet their own needs through the instrumentality of the panchayat together with a gradual withdrawing of themselves from association with the courts of law and the other channels of official administration.

SPIRITUAL EMINENCE.

By these means, Mr. Gandhi hopes to develop in the people the sense of responsibility and ability to manage their own affairs which will make possible the carrying out of his programme of a gradual withdrawing from association with Governments if the latter should remain obdurate. This withdrawal would logically reach its climax in the universal refusal to pay taxes, but the impression I obtained from my talk with him and others was that such a step would not be contemplated until the spirit of self-sacrifice had been widely infused. I was impressed with the fact that various of the leaders felt intensely that the movement could only succeed if it were kept upon the highest moral level, and that its object would be defeated unless, along with their awakening sense of wrong and the injustice done them, the spirit of Satyagraha were born in the hearts of the people. I do not know if Mahatmaji's conception includes the possibility of the use of force—it could without being inconsistent—but I am certain that it has no room in it for hatred. As I understand his vision, his effort is not directed against Englishmen as such, but against the unrighteousness of the relationship which has grown up between the English and Indians. It is the vision of a way of righting a great wrong, so fearless, so noble in its conception, that I bow in reverence to the man who saw it. Could it be carried successfully through it would make a new epoch in the moral progress of the human race and would set India spiritually at the head of the nations. My heart goes all the way with Mr. Gandhi in his great endeavour; it is only my head which reluctantly lags behind. I shall attempt to give my reason for this.

APPREHENSIONS.

Let us assume that the Government refuses to accede to the demands made by Mahatmaji and his associates, and that they feel impelled to carry out the non-co-opepration programme in all its details. Let us also assume that Mr. Gandhi's ideals so influence the hearts and ideals of the masses that the present Government ceases to function and drops to pieces from sheer lack of funds and of the support necessary for administrative purposes. Let us conceive the panchayats efficiently attending every where to the administration of

INFORMAL MANDATE TO LABOUR COMMISSION.

TO EXPLORE AVENUES TO PEACE.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDN, Dec. 4.
Recd. 9-30 a.m. Dec. 7.

A series of small facts tend to harden the impression in the Parliamentary circles that communication is being established between the Government and Sinn Fein. It seems beyond doubt that Mr. Arthur Henderson, the leader of the British Labour Commission in Ireland, has at least an informal mandate from Mr. Lloyd George to explore the avanues that might conceivably lead to Irish peace. It is noteworthy that Mr. Henderson and Mr. Adamson interviewed Mr. Arthur Griffith in the Mountjoy Gaol yesterday and they also visited Archbishop Walsh at the latter's residence. Archbishop Walsh is reported to have said that any effort toward cessation of the provocative acts would receive support of the Catholic hierarchy.

A more hopeful feeling has been engendered by the action of the Irish Municipal bodies hitherto holding the most pronounced Republican views who are beginning to realise, in the words of one Chairman, that the present state of things cannot continue for evermore. While proclaiming themselves adherents of the Dail Eireann the Galway County Council has passed a resolution requesting it and the British Government each to appoint three delegates to negotiate truce and the preliminary terms of peace. The County Council considers that the initiative rests with the British who should not bar the meetings of the Dail Eireann.

The Galway Urban Council has also passed a resolution in favour of truce, while a member of the Dublin Corporation has given notice of a resolution calling for truce for a month pending peace efforts.

MR. CURTIS ON "DYARCHY."

HISTORY OF THE SCHEME.

NEED FOR LIBERAL CONSTITUTION.

APPEAL TO INDIAN LEADERS.

(REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.)
LONDON, Dec. 5.
Recd. 12-25 p.m., Dec. 7.

The Clarendon Press is publishing on the 7th inst. a most important Indian book of the season "Dyarchy" by Lionel Curtis, being a collection of papers of firstclass interest relating to application of the principle of dyarchy to the Government of India with the Report of Joint Committee and the Government of India Act 1919. They include the first definite scheme on the dyarchical plan drawn up by Sir William Duke as finally revised in April, 1916.

LONDON, Dec. 5.
Recd. 2 p.m., Dec. 7.

In the Introduction of sixty pages to his book "Dyarchy" Mr. Lionel Curtis explains that in the Autumn of 1916 Sir William Duke and Sir Lionel Abrahams with other experts joined a group of investigators considering the position of India in postwar reconstruction. The group agreed that responsible Government should be the goal towards which India should be helped by her rulers also that an advance could not be on Morley-Minto lines of power of Legislatures to paralyse the Government without responsibility.

When the plan of specific devolution, afterwards known as Dyarchy, was suggested it was rejected as dangerously inapplicable to Indian conditions, but a diligent search for an alternative was fruitless and to see if the objections to Dyarchy were really insuperable Sir William Duke undertook to formulate a scheme applicable to Bengal. When the scheme was submitted none of the group was greatly enamoured of it, but they could discover no alternative less dangerous. This experience was repeated at every stage in the subsequent discussions. All the authorities, except certain heads of Provinces were driven back, however reluctantly, to the conclusion that the novel expedient of Dyarchy was the least dangerous of the suggestions advanced.

Mr. Curtis places stress on the great share the Indian Civil Service had in working out the various schemes, official and un official in which the principle was applied and thinks that the spontaneous loyalty shown by the Service to the cause of a candid inquiry in advance is the best answer to the fears of some of his Indian friends that the Reforms will be rendered abortive by its hostility.

A DRASTIC STEP TO CHECK INSULT TO INDIANS.

Mr. Curtis claims that between all that is best of the British in India and Indian Nationalism there remains no wall but only a phantom of wall that will presently vanish. Mr. Curtis wishes to guard against the impression that he thinks the Indian question can be solved merely or primarily by granting liberal constitution. No political reform has the least chance of success unless the Government deals decisively with a small class of Europeans who all unconsciously are undermining the only foundation upon which it can rest. He says that whenever he has met an educated Indian definitely and finally embittered against British connection, this bitterness has its roots in some rankling memory of insult at the hands of a European. He urges that the Governors should be vested with powers to investigate judicially cases where Europeans are alleged to have outraged Indian feeling. Wherever a case of wanton and unprovoked insult is proved the Government of India should have power to order the culprit to leave the country. This would be heartily supported by a great body of European opinion in India and a few deportations would soon effect a definite change for the better.

Addressing his Indian friends in the second person Mr. Curtis appeals to them to throw the whole weight of their influence on the side of law and order. Progress towards responsible Government will be most rapid in the provinces where the Ministers and the Legislators openly exercise their influence to support the enforcement of law. Nothing but disorder can now delay the process. Nothing can prevent it but a civil war which always has its seeds in disorder. He asks the Indian leaders to think of the time already in sight when the task of maintaining order with all its bitter necessities will rest on themselves.

The Government of India is also presenting a new gate for the Royal Pavilion which was formerly the central hospital for the Indians.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

BUDGET PASSED.

AMENDMENTS AGAINST EXTRAVAGANCE REJECTED.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Dec. 5.
Recd. 1-30 p.m., Dec. 7.

Geneva.—The budget of the League and the International Labour Bureau has been adopted after the rejection of the Indian resolution that the expenses of the Secretariat were too high and should be reduced as the occasion offered and the rejection of the New Zealand resolution that twenty million ninehundred and fifty thousand gold francs and half million gold francs respectively in the Budget of the Secretary and the Labour Bureau be reduced on the ground that the salaries of high officials and the money allocated for publications by the Labour Bureau were too large.

In the Assembly the Canadian, Mr Doherty moved an amendment for elimination of Article Ten of the covenent under which the members undertake to respect mutual territorial integrity and preserve it against external aggression. This is one of the obnoxious clauses in the eyes of the United States, and the proposal is probably intended to facilitiate the entry of the United States into the League.

SENATOR HARDING'S VIEWS.

It is noteworthy that Senator McCormick a close friend of the President-Elect is proceeding to Geneva to submit Senator Harding's views.

The Canadians made a statement that they were quite ready for the amendment to come up at the next assembly in accordance with a resolution covering all the amendments carried last week.

A PEACEFUL REVOLUTION.

INSTITUTION BECOMES INDEPENDENT OF GOVT.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

LAHORE, Dec. 6.

A Press Communique states:—

Meetings of the Khalsa College Council and Managing Committee were held at the College on the 4th December. The Managing Committee considered the report of the Sub-Committee appointed in accordance with its resolution of the 13th November, to consider what substitutions should be made in the fundamental rules in order to remove all the Government Control from the management of the institution. The Sub-Committee's report was carefully considered by the Managing Committee at a session lasting for 3 hours, and was accepted almost in its entirety. The change in this report suggested by the Managing Committee, were almost of a purely verbal character. The only recommendation of the Sub-Committee, which the Managing Committee did not accept, was a proposal that the funds of the institution should be vested in five trustees. The Managing Committee felt that this matter was one on which it would be better to obtain the best legal advice.

NEW REGIME.

The Council which met immediately after the meeting of the Managing Committee accepted all the proposals of the Managing committee. The Lieutenant-Governor had, in the exercise of powers vested in him by rule 32 of the fundamental rules, authorised the Managing Committee to pass finally at one session, amendments of the rules brought forward at this meeting. As a result, the new rules have become part of the fundamental rules of the institution. The President of the Council, as soon as the rules were pased, took leave of the members, and Sardar Nihal Singh proposed a vote of thanks to Government and to the President for the efficient way in which the institution had been managed under the old regime.

The Council will consist in future of 80 members instead of 56 as heretofore, of these 40 will be nominated by the Punjab State, 20 will be selected by the Council as representatives of British districts and remaining 20 will be elected by the public Sikh institutions or bodies. President, Vice-President and Honorary Secretary of the Council will be selected by the Council from amongst its members. No paid servant of the institution shall be a member of the Council. It now remains for the Council to fill up vacancies in accordance with the new rules and to elect a President, Vice-President and Honorary Secretary. As soon as this is done the new constitution will be complete.

PUNJAB POSTAL STRIKE.

MEN'S DEMAND.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

LAHORE, Dec. 6.

Mr. Santanam, President of the Punjab Postmen Association, has issued the following statement to the Press regarding the postal strike:—

A strike of postmen, packers and mail peons of Lahore and Cantonment took place to-day. In Lahore there are over 200 men on strike. Only 14 postmen out of a total number of 135 are at work. In Cantonment all the men except one have come out. The news from Lyallpur and Rawalpindi is that the strike is complete. The news from other places has not been received yet. The strike is due to purely economic causes as demands of the men are for higher wages, house rent, allowance, shorter hours of work, proper uniforms, full facility for leave and leave allowances. The provision recently made in the pay of postmen and others is merely nominal. The men stated their minimum demands in a memorial submitted in September last and, in the alternative, suggested an arbitration board to decide this question if the Government was not prepared to accede to their demands in full. The revised pay sanctioned by the Government for postmen at first class head offices was Rs. 22, rising to Rs. 34 by increments of one rupee in two years on time scale. For the second, third and fourth class offices it was much less. In addition, Rs. 2 as house allowance was sanctioned for Delhi, Lahore and Rawalpindi only. The men's demand for first class head offices is Rs. 30, rising to Rs. 50 by annual increment of a rupee, with Rs. 4 as house rent allowance. Proportionately lesser demands have been made for offices of lower grades.

RANGOON UNIVERSITY

TO BE BOYCOTTED BY BURMANS.

COLLEGE STUDENTS' RESOLVE.

From Our Correspondent.

RANGOON, Dec. 6.

The following circular has been circulated in the City to-day:—

The University of Rangoon Act came into operation from the 1st of December, against the united and well considered opposition of the people of Burma, both in council nd outside. Since the day the Bill was initiated for discussion in the Council the people of Burma demanded certain points in strong and unequivocal terms, but the demands were not conceded and the Bill foisted upon the people against their will and wishes About 500 students of Rangoon and Judson Colleges have, therefore, undertaken the boycott movement as their last and only lawful resource. Burma now appeals for unity to her intellectuals. The Bill in its present shape will only crush university education and deteriorate general status of the national self-respect."

COMPLETE ABSTENTION OF PUPILS.

BOYS LEAVE HOSTELS AND SLEEP IN ZAYATS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

RANGOON, Dec. 7.

Following the boycott of the University by students of the constituent colleges, the principal Rangoon schools, including the Government High School, are faced with almost complete abstention of pupils, who as potential undergraduates, support the protest against the preliminary years English course. The only school still at work is St. Paul's conducted by Christian brothers. Abstentions are also rumoured from one or two Government high schools in the district centres. At the meetings of students, the school pupils have pledged themselves to a firm attitude. There is no sign of disorder but students attending colleges report attempts to persuade them to join the movement. A student, who had been suffering from fever, and had joined the boycott, has died and is being referred to as a martyr. A large numbers of the boycotters are sleeping in Zayats, having left their hostels and boarding houses. The vernacular press urges establishment of a Buddhist high school to meet the need hitherto met by missionary schools. The Baptist School, where the strike occurred has been reopened being absorbed in the larger movement against the University Act. The Anglo-Indian students and pupils decline to join the boycott or abstainent from the movement.

STUDY OF NON-CO-OPERATION

their own localities, and the eyes of the people turned earnestly to noble and patriotic leaders for guidance in policies affecting the country as a whole. Such a thought is indeed inspiring, yet even if we are able to conceive of such a perfect consummation as possible, there are still weighty reasons to pause and consider before we desire such a result. Possibly it is the duty of those of us who live in the North to call the attention of those who live further South to certain factors up here which might well play their part in the destruction of such a fair dream. Personally, I do so with hesitation, and fully admitting the possibility of my being in error. Only the anxiety that nothing should be done without a full consideration of its possible consequences, emboldens me to place my apprehensions on record.

UNARMED NATION.

I would ask leaders to consider on the one hand the fact that for many years the people of India as a whole have been kept disarmed, that except in the North they have largely lost their martial traditions, and have quite forgotten how to defend themselves from armed violence. On the other hand, several of the border nations have been developed, through the British military policy, into eminent fighters in every sense of the word. In all other matters than the art of war these races are infinitely less advanced than the people of India proper; and I do not think any responsible man would accuse me of exaggeration if I assert, that the chances of the martial races of Kabul and Nepal forgoing the opportunity for conquest that a Swarajic Indian Republic, untrained in arms and unskilled to defend itself, would afford them, are remote,

POSSIBLE CONSEQUENCES.

It is a time to speak plainly. We must not lose touch with realities if we would be true to India. The Motherland may be destroyed by shortsightedness as well as by unfaithfulness. My anxiety conjures before my imagination this picture of the possible consequences of a too early break with the British connection:—I see the Punjab overrun by the lashkars of Afghanistan and the turbulent trans-border tribes, all of them used to war and bloodshed and inured to rapine and plunder. I see the simple peoples of the eastern hills again driven from their homes to the forest by the Gurkhas, as their forefathers were a hundred years ago. I see Sind harried by bands of Baluchis and the highly trained armies of Nepal carving out for themselves a kingdom in the United Province. I see the Sikhs of the Punjab, rendered apprehensive by the advance of their ancient enemies, rallying around the chiefs of the Phulkian States and Kapurthala, with the raising of the standard of the Khalsa And back of all there looms the fearful possibility that in the midst of such scenes of disorder and violence the old deadly religious issue will come again to life, and in the ever growing chaos, the star of India's dawning freedom be obscured for another long period by the dark clouds of selfish ambition, religious fanaticism and anarchy. I have spoken only of those dangers which might have their source upon India's immediate borders and which would arise in the North. But is the South free from its own perils? Consider the great Indian sea-board with its ports of Karachi, Bombay, Madras and Calcutta, none of them with any defences worthy of the name beyond the might of the British fleet. If the Imperial connection should come to an end before provision had been made for the adequate defence of these keys of India, what would our position be? Remember that there is another Island Kingdom nearer to our shores than the British Isles nourished upon the ideals of Western Imperialism. In Europe, also, there are hungry powers with a past record in their dealings with non-white races, blacker by far than England's. Let those who seek immediate and complete Swaraj ponder on these things.

BREAKING BRITISH CONNECTION.

I admit that this may be the nightmare of little faith. Heaven grant that it be only this, and that the nobleness of the conception of a free Swarajic India may be capable of holding in check the forces of disorder without her border until India has evolved for herself the power for self-defence with which the British have failed to provide her. Let not our leaders, however, in working for Swaraj, fail to take into consideration the possibility that a too early break with the British might have such consequences. Personally, I should prefer such a scence of affairs with all the bloodshed and misery it would at first entail, were the only alternative a permanent connection with the British Empire. I should do so, believing that eventually Pathans and Gurkhas would be absorbed into the life of the land as the Moghuls and other invaders have been in the past, and that the debasing relation at present existing between the rulers and the ruled could not under such circumstances be possible for long.

RESULTS OF PERMANENT CONNECTION.

And yet, let me add, nothing but the prospect of a permanent connection with the British Empire would lead me to welcome as an alternative such conditions as I have tried to picture above. The results, though not as disastrous as permanent connection with the Empire, would still be appaling. Mr. Gandhi himself recognises, nations like individuals have certain periods in which special impulses are evinced, which if not taken advantage of and cultivated at the time of their appearance, are apt to die away and be lost. Not the least terrible of the possibilities of such a period of disruption and violence, with the break in education and ordered life that it would entail, is that under its stress the awakened impulse to freedom and a higher self-respect would be lost in the maze of selfishness, ambition and fear that always accompanies such a state of affairs. Students of history know that such things have happened before. I would cite only the hundreds of years of darkness and barbarism which settled down upon Europe after the disintegration of the Roman Empire. Indians will naturally think of the period following the great war of the Mahabharat. Let us be very sure that there is not another and a safer way to the goal of our desires before we choose this perilous path.

HOW FAR IS THE IDEAL UNDERSTOOD.

We must also consider another possibility. In the above paragraph I have proceeded upon the assumption that Mahatmaji's purpose is capable of successful accomplishment so far as the people of British India are concerned, and have tried to show that even in the event of a complete success so far as the territories at present governed by the British are concerned, we should still be in the greatest danger of seeing his plan end in disaster by reason of the militant forces of barbarism upon India's boarders, to whom the ideal of Mr. Gandhi means nothing. Whether he can accomplish what he desires only the future will reveal, even so far as British India itself is concerned. We must realize that his ideal depends for its success upon its being carried out in the spirit of satyagraha. If it should find its dynamic in the lower passions, I do not conceive that he would consider it a means to India's salvation. Yet it is in just this that he is so handicapped. I know from personal experience that some of the leaders have imbibed his spirit, but I also know that the rank and file of those upon whom he has to depend for the extension of his propaganda, are far less the influence of this vitally important aspect of his message than of a burning sense of injured self-respect as Indians at the treatment that has been meted out to their fellows. I listened for several days to their messages to the people, and confess that they did not seem to me calculated to develop the spirit of Satyagraha among the hearers. Now the success of the Non-Co-operation movement as at present contemplated, seems to me to depend absolutely upon the growth of that spirit of discipline which will make it possible for the people to progress stage by stage, and at the stage only so far as Mr. Gandhi dictates, yet as I listened to speech after speech it seemed to me that the impression made upon the ignorant hearers was not of a kind to produce that result. The danger of the present method of appealing to the people would appear to lie in its creating an impetus based upon anger and indignation which, uncontrolled by the true spirit of Satyagraha, would carry the people along faster than Mr. Gandhi would desire, and thus defeat the end he has in view. For his object is a great moral victory over the forces of injustice; mere disruption and the losing of the lower passions would be as distasteful to him as to the most moderate of the Moderates. To me the fatal weakness in his programme lies in the fact that so few of those upon whom he has to depend are imbued with his spirit, and I greatly fear that unless this movement of Non-Co-operation be carried out in the spirit of its great leader, it will degenerate into mere unintelligent disorderliness. If it does, it may be the means of severing the British connection, but I doubt if it will bring us the Swaraj we desire.

PERILOUS APPLICATION.

To sum up my position upon the present application of the principle of Non-Co-operation: I feel that in view of our present defencelessness apart from the British, and in view of the thoroughness with which Government has trained the soldiers of the backward but warlike races upon our borders, we should be doing the Motherland a disservice if we succeeded in securing Swaraj at the present juncture. Supposing that the present Government will not yield to Mr. Gandhi's demands for justice in connection with the Punjab outrages, and that the British Imperial Government will not fulfil its pledges to Turkey—neither of which they are likely to do—it seems to me that the methods by which many of those associated with Mr. Gandhi seek to forward the policy he advocates, will lead to results very different from that which Mahatmaji desires, and consequently that the present aplication of the principle of Non-Co-operation is a perilous one and only justified if we can find no other way as efficient and yet fraught with less danger.

FIRE IN COTTON GODOWN.

DAMAGE ESTIMATED AT RS. 150,000.

A serious fire broke out on Monday night in a cotton godown at Jamshetji Bunder, Colaba. The godown was rented by Mr. Khimji Govindji and belongs to Mr. Gulamally Essaji, and is known as E godown of the Nickel Mill. There were about 2,200 pressed bales of cotton stored in the building. As soon as the fire was detected the fire brigade people ran up to the scene, and the fire was got under control in about one hour and a half, as there was plenty of water available. The authorities had to flood the godown with water and this damaged some of the bales in the next compartments of the godown belonging to the Indian Cotton Company and Mr. Mulji Jetha. The damage is estimated at about Rs. 150,000 and the fire was completely extinguished about 3 a.m.

It has not been possible to ascertain the cause of the fire.

BOMBAY BANK MYSTERY

A THREE YEAR OLD AFFAIR.

In connection with the alleged defalcations in the Bank of Bombay, it is said that one of the Bank's Inspectors got some anonymous information about the enormous share speculation of some of the Bank's clerks and proceeded to examine the Bank's ledgers. On Thursday last when the turn came for the inspection of the ledger formerly maintained by Mr. Sunderrao Ranjit, the latter made himself scarce and has not been traced since. The Bank's officials are naturally very reluctant to give any information, and several rumours—some of them of a wild character—are afloat in the commercial circles of the City. Mr. Sunderrao Ranjit was formerly a ledger keeper and about 3 or 4 months ago he seems to have been promoted Deputy Superintendent of Accounts, Mr. Motiram, a nephew of Mr. Sunderrao, who has been arrested, being put in his place as ledger keeper. Mr. Sunderrao belongs to the Prabhu community and is the son of Mr. Govindrao Shamrao Ranjit, J.P., and Hon. Magistrate formerly a Superintendent in the Postal Department and since his retirement, Secretary of the Bombay Uncovenanted Service Family Pension Fund. Mr. Sunderrao is about 35 years of age and had put in about 15 years' service in the Bank.

In connection with the defalcations, which are so far estimated somewhere at 20 lakhs, several people have been arrested. Of the parties involved, one of them is said to be down with a severe attack of paralysis. One Luxman, a younger son of Mr. Lalchand Jassodanand was arrested as also an elder son Mr. Ramchand and on Saturday evening, an attempt was made to bail out Luxman, but the latter does not yet seem to have been let on bail. The case against Mr. Banaji and a Bori contracter has already been mentioned in these columns.

AS FAR BACK AS 1917.

Further investigations of the Bank's books are said to be proceeding and the auditors are engaged in it at present. So far as can be ascertained, it appears that these defalcations can be traced as far back as 1917. Anonymous letters furnished a clue to the discovery that is said now to have been made. Mr. Aitken, Secretary and Treasurer of the Bank, who was at the time away in Calcutta in connection with tre Imperial Bank Scheme was hurriedly sent for and has since returned to Bombay.

They say that these huge defalcations perpetrated by Indian clerks and deputies may not be due to the active or tacit connivance but at any rate they could not have been perpetrated without gross negligence and carelessness on the part of some of the European officers of the Bank.

Some of the parties who are involved in this case, are men of substance and evidently much anxiety is not felt on their score But there eppears however, to be much uncertainty prevailing as to the extent of the frauds nor is it possible as yet to say with any certainty what other departments besides the Current Accounts have or have not been involved. Possibly, the close investigations which are going on since last week will lead to some definite and useful conclusions regarding the affairs of the Bank.

DEFALCATIONS IN OTHER BANKS?

Rumours are also rife that some defalcations have been discovered in some other local Banks, but being a small affair they have not been allowed to come to light. Owing to adverse exchange position, a rush has lately been made on the Exchange Banks particularly, but it does not seem to have anything to do with the discovery of frauds in the Bank of Bombay.

"AN UNDULY LENIENT" SENTENCE.

LEUT. REYNOLDS GETS ONE YEAR!

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

ALLAHABAD, Dec. 6.

The trial of Lieut. Reynolds at the Allahabad High Court concluded to-day. The jury returned a unanimous verdict of "guilty." The Chief Justice sentenced the accused to one year's rigorous imprisonment. His Lordship said the accused had been to Gallipoli and had as a soldier in the ranks undergone hardships of that campaign. He went to France and had been in some of the very heavy fighting. During the latter period, he was wounded in defence of his country and recommended for a commission. All this was greatly to the credit of the accused. In India, he was appointed to a position of great responsibility. The conviction would mean dismissal from the army. Confinement in India for a European is inevitably associated with greater discomfort and more actual physical and mental suffering than in England. On the other hand, the accused, as a public servant, had abused his trust. His Lordship gave the accused some good advice, and taking into consideration his social downfall, loss of position and previous good service, and agreeing with the verdict of the jury, who found the accused guilty of criminal breach of trust as a public servant, sentenced him to one year's rigorous imprisonment. The sentence, his Lordship said, was unduly lenient for the above considerations. The wife of the prisoner was present in the Court throughout the trial, and was visibly affected when the sentence was pronounced.

His Excellency the Chancellor of the University of Bombay is pleased to reappoint the following gentlemen to be Ordinary Fellows of the University with effect from the date of expiry of their present term of office:—The most Rev. Dr. A. Goodier, S.J., Dr. N. F. Surveyor, Mr. M. B. Jayakar and Khan Bahadur Fardunji M. Dastur.

INDIA'S CLAIM TO SELF-GOVT.

MR. SPOOR ON BRITAIN'S DUTY.

GLOWING TRIBUTE TO CONGRESS DEPUTATION.

From Our Correspondent.

DELHI, Dec. 6.

Mr. Ben Spood, Labour Member of the House of Commons, who is excepted to land in India on 12th December in the capacity of a fraternal delegate from the Labour Party to the Nagpur Congress, has written a forword to a pamphlet containing a verbatim report of the demands of the Indian National Congress as presented to the Joint Select Committee by the Congress Deputation. Reviewing the Congress demands, Mr. Spoor observes that the National Congress is admittedly the most representative political body in India. It is interesting to find its demands as identical with the All-India Moslem League. See does the spirit of nationalism leap accross the gulf of religious and racial differences.

The writer pays a glowing tribut to Mr. Patel's abilities, which justified his election as the chief spokesman. Mr. Patel's tone was neither apologetic nor subservient. Independence and straightforwardness marked his attitude throughout. A severe cross-examination did not in the least shake Mr. Patel's evidence.

GLORIOUS PAST.

Mr. Spoor, after summarily reviewing the Congress demands, proceeds:—"A wave of nationalism has swept the country. Indian people have been reminded of their glorious past, of that ancient civilisation and pofound culture which has influenced and still influences the thought of the whole world. Remembering their amazing history they refuse any longer to submit to an alien rule. They believe in their own capacity for self-government and have faith in the justice of their claim. It is a claim that cannot be long denied. The world war has created new conditions in India as elsewhere. The old order has passed away. The British have held India by force. We are approaching a new era in which the compulsion of ideas alone will count. Without entering into a detailed discussion as to the character of British rule in India or as to how far it is responsible for the conditions existing in that unhappy country, one is justified in stating some tragic facts. Once amongst the richest countries in the world India is now one of the poorest. The overage income per head works out at about £2 a year. Half the population live on one meal per day. Disease decimates millions of here people every year. The average life in India is 23 years. If the domination of one race by another has not caused this terrible state of affairs, it has not prevented it. Certainly the imposition of Western capitalism has involved India in that exaggerated inequality in the distribution of wealth which inevitably flows from a system that denies the human factor in industry. There are acts and regulations in the Statute Book of India that are a disgrace to Britain. The Executive have armed itself with repressive powers that would not be tolerated for a single instant in any other part of the Empire. Small wonder that the flame of revolt has been lighted. The miracle is that it has not blazed higher. That it will do so very soon seems certain unless wiser counsels prevail. The situation is extremely critical. A false step now may lead to irretrievable ruin. On the other hand, if the British Government has not entirely lost its political genius and forgotten its traditional faith in freedom, it may take a step that will not only bring liberty and equality to India, but will make for the stability of the Empire and the peace of the world.

MR. PATEL'S SERVICES.

Before concluding I should like to record my firm conviction that the Congress Deputation by their able and dignified advocacy in the Press, on the public platform and before the Joint Committee have justified the claim of the Congress to represent advanced Indian opinion. In particular, I would like to take this opportunity of thanking Mr. Patel on behalf of my colleagues in the House of Commons and myself for the immense service he has rendered in explaining of the Congress demands and assisting us to a fuller knowledge of the Indian question. Much as I appreciate the unwearied efforts of the deputation, I cannot but feel that continuous and persistent labour are still required if the goal of responsible Government is to be reached at a reasonably early date. The Congress might well consider the wisdom of sending two or three chosen representatives over to this country to continue the educative campaign that has been so admirably initiated. At the same time it is equally essential that members of the British Parliament who are interested in India should visit that country with a view to acquiring firsthand information—for only through understanding can we make progress. As the people of Britain are coming to a knowledge of India and her demands, as they are using in truer perspective the heavy responsibilities of the Empire, as they are realising with increasing force that real freedom is imperative if security is to be maintained at home and abroad; they will, by the sheer force of public opinion, compel Government to act justly, for they will know that the way of justice is the path of wisdom."

ELECTION SCENES IN CALCUTTA.

PLIGHT OF VOTERS.

SCHOOL BOYS ARRESTED.

(From our own Correspondent.)

CALCUTTA, Dec. 3 (5 p.m.).

Calcutta has taken a sudden leap forward to-day, and Non-Cooperation has asserted itself very strongly even at the eleventh hour, though all along I have been telling your readers which way the wind has been blowing. Those who thought hitherto that Calcutta was lukewarm to Non-Cooperation, had their doubts banished for good to-day, by the arrests of students, the wanton interference by the police, the behaviour of the Principal of the Scottish Churches College, the ready response by voters at the eleventh hour to the request not to vote, and the tremendous shout of "Gandhi Maharaj ki Jai!" by the students and the public and onlookers as the police began their pranks and arrest followed arrest.

The polling centres were the colleges, the police-stations and the like, and the students had not been given a holiday. The lectures were being continued as usual and polling ready to be started. The boys fell flat before every motor conveying the voter who had been well-fed at a morning feast organised by the candidate. They requested the arrivals not to vote as per yesterday's printed notice posted throughout the city "Vote for None!" It is strange that most of the voters readily assented and went away as they came! Then did the candidates begin to smell the rat! Then did the police and the Bengal Government and Corporation officials understand that Calcutta had been secretly undermined during the past few months by the "poison" Gandhi Maharaj is known to be brewing! A poison which Lord Ronaldshay was very much afraid of at the St. Andrew's dinner the other evening. More than three-fourths of the Bengali populations now prove to be Non-Cooperators.

At forenoon, Dr. Watts, Principal of the Scottish Churches College, warned the students not to meddle with the voters, "You must obey me, and not Mr. Gadhi", said the popular and good-natured reverend old gentleman. But little did he dream that Gandhi-ism had prevaded the soul of every mother's son in the institution, and five hundred boys fell flat before the Deputy Commissioner of Police asking him to arrest them wholesale, shouting "Non-violent N. C. O.! Gandhi Maharaj ki Jai!" The crowd, gathered together on the opposite side of the Hedua tank, thundered back the sound "Gandhi Maharaj ki Jai", and the old days of Swadeshi and Bande Mataram and Police zooloom seemed to dawn upon a benighted city that seemed to glitter, at midday under the scorching sun and the power of the "young hopefuls."

LADS ARRESTED.

Six arrests were made at the Scottish Churches as far as I have hastily been able to gather to prepare this letter for the Bombay Mail this evening. Some arrests are said to have been made at Burra Bazar polling centre (which was a police-station). The arrested lads' friends telephoned to Mr. C. R. Dass using the College instrument, which also was used by the Deputy Commissioner, who is reported to have 'phoned up the armed police to strike terror into the hearts of the students. They came in two carriages. Mr. C. R. Dass replied on the 'phone that greater the arrests the better! Evidently, the renowned Nationalist leader thought that Non-Cooperation would forge ahead if the police roused public feeling by wanton arrests.

The entire College will strike to-morrow and I hear the City College lads would follow suit, as there too the police were present with a big force, as if the avowed object of the election was not to create a Council member, but to punish the College lads, the rising generation, so much, and so secretly too, attached to Mahatma Gandhi. When the boys appealed to Dr. Watts to protect them from the police zooloom, he said he was unable as he had done his duty by warning them. Strong feeling prevails against Dr. Watts as it is asserted that he rang up the police against his own students.

The lads saw that they should no longer hide their real N. C. O. attitude, and with joined palms, in the teeth of the police lathis and rifles of the military police observed to the voters, "You will eat your son's head if you vote!" To eat a son's head is a very dangerous oath in Bengal, and you could disregard it as your beloved child dies then and there! So every gorgeously dressed voter was bundled out; and he chew-chewed away in his motor as briskly as he came.

The City College boys were in sullen mood three nights ago. They tore down a thin partition in their College and prepared a large hall, they then brought benches and chairs and held an impromptu meeting to support N. C. O. Such unique courage was never known before inside a College building. I cannot say what the morrow brings. Probably to-day has seen the foundation-stone laid of national colleges in Calcutta.

MORE THAN 20 ARRESTS.

The number of arrested at different colleges were more than 20 in all. All of whom were released on bail. The police charged the students with lathis according to another version, the students shouting "Non-Violent, Non-Cooperation! Mahatma Gandhiji ki Jai!" As every Bengali was taken for a Non-Cooperator, whether afoot or in motor, the voters and the friends of candidates wore the badge of "Co-operator!" which caused great mirth. Unless you were labelled "Co-operator" you were sure to be taken for a N. C. O., and the whole city was shouting "Gandhi Maharaj ki Jai" from Burra Bazar to Cornwallis Square.

Many men such as Dr. Mrigendro Lal Mitter, Dr. Promotho Nath Banerji, etc., turned N. C. O. For the University seat only three are standing for Bengal and for the Legislative Assembly only two. All this lukewarm competition and scanty number are due to the prevalence of N. C. O.

TWO PETITIONS

The text of the two following petitions has been sent to us for publication. Both are dated Ahmedabad November 29, addressed to the Secretary to Government, Legislative Department, Bombay, and signed by Joseph Benjamin, President, Shankarlal K. Vyas, Vice-President, Chunilal T. Beharwala Secretary of the Gujarat Branch, All-India Sub-Assistant Surgeons Association:—

Sir,—We have the honour, by direction of the General Committee of the Gujarat Branch of the All-India Sub-Assistant-Surgeons' Association, Ahmedabad, to lay the following representation for the kind consideration of the Government.

At present the Bombay Medical Council consists of thirteen members, seven of whom are nominated by Government including its President, and six are elected out of whom the medical graduates of the Bombay University elect four, whereas the electorate formed under section 2 (2) (d) of the Bombay Medical Act and which consists of I.M.S., Officers, other medical men with British qualifications, Military Assistant-Surgeons, Sub-Assistant-Surgeons, and others, has the right to send only two representatives, though its number is nearly 50 per cent. more than that of medical graduates of the Bombay University.

Thus the electorate under section 2 (2) is placed at a disadvantage with regard to the safe-guarding of its interests by its representatives on the said Council being [illegible] electorate under section 2 (2) (c) of the Act.

Under the new reform Scheme due consideration has been paid to the numerical strength of an electorate, and consequently more seats have been given on the Bombay Legislative Council to different electorates on that basis. Similar franchise is also to be shortly extended to the Municipal electorates in the Presidency.

We have therefore the honour to request that Government will graciously be pleased to take steps to the Bombay Medical Act so as to give six seats to the electorate formed under section 2 (2) (d) of the Act on the Bombay Medical Council in order that the electorate may have its due representation on the said council in proportion to its number.

It is our further prayer that in view of the fact that the Bombay Legislative Council and the Municipalities in the Presidency will no be constituted on a more elective basis, Government will be pleased to extend the same privilege to the Bombay Medical Council also.—We have the honour etc.

Sir,—We have the honour, by direction of the General Committee of the Gujarat Branch of the All-India Sub-Assistant-Surgeons' Association, Ahmedabad, to lay the following representation before Government for their kind consideration.

At present, excluding the Superintendents, teachers are appointed on the permanent staff of the three Government Medical Schools in this Presidency from the Cadre of Civil Assistant-Surgeons. Many of them when appointed to these posts belong to the lowest rung of the ladder without any expert knowledge of the subject which they are called upon to teach and have not distinguished themselves in the subject for which they are appointed, but have simply taken their degree. Consequently the students are placed at a great disadvantage so far as teaching is concerned. So far as the B. J. Medical School, Ahmedabad, is concerned where mostly students from Gujarat receive their Medical Education, in the final L.C.P.S., examination for 1919 out of 86 students only 30 came out successful giving a percentage of 34.9 only. In the L.C.P.S., examination held in May last out of 36 students who from the same school who had applied to present themselves for the examination 32 appeared, and out of them only 13 passed.

In the First Professional Examination for the L.C.P.S., held in September last out of 67 students from this School only 16 passed giving a percentage of only 23.9. These figures speak for themselves.

Government are at present considering the question of improving the Medical Education in this Presidency.

In the interests of the State, the public, and the students, it is therefore essential that the teaching in these schools should be placed on a better footing. We have therefore to request that Government will be pleased to take early steps to remedy the present state of affairs, and place the teaching in these schools on a better footing by appointing experts as teachers by selecting therefrom the profession at large instead of restricting the appointments to service men only.

We have further the honour to request that in case men in the service are selected Government will be pleased to see that frequent changes do not take place among the teaching staff, and teachers appointed for one subject are not made to leave it to take up another and they should be debarred from private practice, better pay being given to them to compensate them for the loss they would suffer on that account.

We further beg to request that, in appointing honorary Lecturers also, specialists will be selected for the posts and that due attention will be paid that students receive proper clinical instruction in these schools.

Lastly, we have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to thoroughly equip the Libraries, Laboratories and Museums of Pathological specimens attached to these Institutions, so that the students belonging to these Schools may derive full advantage thereof in the interests of their education.—We have the honour etc.

FOR NON-COOPERATION.

(To the Editor of "The Chronicle".)

Sir,—Your contributor G. K. N. whilst writing against Non-Cooperation (vide the "Chronicle" of the 23rd inst) has given us a long dissertation on the negation of Christianity and has prolifically quoted the sayings of Tertullian, Mathew, Luke, Madame Greyon; and her admirer Fenelow, and then he has launched himself in a long rigmarole about Quietism, Mysticism, Sufism of Islam, Uirvritti or inaction of the Buddhist cult and Nirvana or cessation. One fails to understand what has all this to do with the Non-Co.operation of Mahatma Gandhi. In all humility may I ask G. K. N., whether he thinks Gandhiji a second Christ Luke, Mathew, Peter or some other saints. The poor Mahatma himself says that he is neither a saint nor a superman but an ordinary human being who has felt the woes of his country keenly and has tried to soften the lot of his countrymen. But it appears that G. K. N., elevates him to the rank of a prophet. Is Gandhiji posing as a teacher of a new religion, or is he only a leader of the oppressed Indian? Gandhiji is a Vaishnava-Hindu. Why should he go seeking and searching the tomos St. Mark, St. Luke and St. Peter when he has bright examples of Non-Co-operation nearer home. Was not Pramad a non-co-operator against his father? Was not Virtuous Vibhishan a non-co-operator against his evil-doing elder brother Ravana? Gandhiji's Non-co-operation does not mean inaction as G. K. N. frantically tries the people to believe. His non-co-operation means:—

(1) Non-co-operation against lies, shams and falsehoods.

(2) Non-co-operation against an arbitrary autocratic rule which tramples on the sentiments of the people.

(3) Non-co-operation against a servile education which has emasculated our manhood.

(4) Non-co-operation against those whose policy is to divide and rule.

(5) His non-co-operation means co-operation among the Hindus, Mohammedans, Parsis, Christians, Jews and all children of India.

(6) His non-co-operation means the saving of money and time of the people by the introduction of the Panchayet system.

(7) His non-co-operation is for the purpose of imparting a national education in place of that education which vilifies our forefathers.

(8) His non-co-operation inculcates sympathy for humanity and not the color bias so vehemently advocated by imperialists. Gandhiji does not practico Nirvana or cessation in the sense which G. K. N. insinuates. He preaches how the soul can be saved and the mind elevated and that is by plain-living, high-thinking, truthful, ness. fearlessness, chastity, love of the fatherland and a contempt for all diplomatic shams and chicaneries, so vehemently denounced by poor deluded President Wilson who wanted to pose as the mentor of Europe without the soul force and who failed so miserably.

If G. K. N. prefers the fist of O'Dwyer to the soul force of Mr. Gandhi let him say so frankly, why does he drag saints and savants of 19 centuries to smash one weak suffering mortal. Let G. K. N. come out of his purda of pseudonym and he will find worthier opponents than my humble self to answer him.—Yours etc.

WHERE IS THE COW PROTECTION COMPANY?

To the Editor of "The Chronicle".

Sir,—In the months of August and September last a good deal of excitement prevailed in the country when the news were out that the C. P. Government had decided to patronise an European Limited Company to be established with the object of dealing in leather, jerked meet etc., by building for the Company at the Government expenses a large up-to-date slaughter-house at Ranota (C. P.) with accommodations for killing 100 to 2100 animals a day, public opinion grew very strong against this action of the C. P. Government and protest meetings were held in cities and towns all over the country. A big public meeting of the citizens of Bombay was held in the Gaiety Theatre on the 24th August under the joint auspices of the Bombay Humanitarian League and the Cow Protection Society, which was presided over by the Sheriff of Bombay. As everybody must be remembering, the Hon. Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya delivered a very heart rending speech and as a remit of it, it was resolved to float a limited concern with the capital of one crore of rupees. Our Marwari gentleman, Mr. Shioramdas Bilarrai Kedia, a very enthusiastic person, got up from the back row and assured the public that if the company is floated he would be willing to devote his fine and get the capital shares worth rupees one crore subscribed everbody eagerly looked for the announcement and it was about a month back that your esteemed paper announced the proposed establishment of a limited concern to be named the Western India Cattle Preservation and Dairy Co. Ltd. with Mr. Shioramdas as a promoter. A month or a more has passed and nothing more is heard. As an ardent supporter of the cattle-protection movement, I enquired of the Secretaries of the Bombay Humanitarian League regarding the Company and was unable to obtain any particulars regarding it. I met Mr. Kedia and he too could not give any definite reply. I was told by some friends of Mr. Kedia that he has not of late been taking any active interest in the movement owing to domestic mishaps. Is this the way of taking part in public affairs? Can I expect Mr. Kedia or any of his friends to throw light in the matter?—Yours, etc.

WATER SUPPLY OF BOMBAY.

To the Editor of "The Chronicle".

Sir,—Since my last letter I am glad to learn that the public has commenced to take some interest in the question of the water supply of Bombay.

Dr. Dadachanji is quite right in proposing that the members of the Corporation should visit the Vihar Lake and gather first hand information on the spot. In doing this I would suggest that they should visit the equeduct near Bhandup which is easily accessible and by means of corks with little flags set floating in the sides as well as in the centre of the said aqueduct and by the help of a reliable stop watch the inside dimensions as well as the length of the aqueduct being known the flow of the water would be easily ascertained and whether 32 millions gallons actually flow through, in 24 hours can be found out.

The Municipal Commissioner was also good enough to say that by an ingenious device the water work authorities were enabled to supply further 1½ millions of gallons per day.

I am sure the public is naturally curious to learn what this ingenious device is. I think it would be interesting to gather more information on the following points.

1. Is it not true that the Sluice Man at Bandra opposite the Slaughter House had practically shut down the sluice value keeping only three or four turns open during the first three weeks of November thus practically shutting off all the water supply of Mahim and Dadar and other places and that after this discovery and opening the value by some few inches more those localities are getting some water?

2. All the 32" values of the 32" mains have been removed and replaced by valves of 24" or 18". Has this not interfered with the flow of the water?—Yours, etc.

R. A. TARKHAD.

A QUERY.

To the Editor of "The Chronicle".

Sir,—It is a mystery as to what has become of the Anglo-India Colonial Navigation Company, Ltd. A few days back your paper had published that steps are being taken by some shareholders, among whom are the barristers and other legal practitioners, to safeguard the interests of the investors and some correspondence is going on with the directors in this respect. A meeting also was to be held about the end of September last but nothing is known about it. So will any of those concerned in the above company publish if the company is still in existence and carrying on its business and thus enlighten the shareholders on the true state of affairs? Also why was not the statutory meeting called up again and the report, if amended, passed at it? Yours, etc.,

SURAT NEWS.

ONE MORE NATIONAL SCHOOL.

From Our Correspondent.

SURAT, Sunday, Dec 5.

Under instructions of the local Khilafat Committee Friday the 3rd instant was observed as a mourning day on account of the death of Maulana Moulvi Mohomad-ul-Hussein. Complete hartal was observed throughout the city. The carriage keepers also did not ply their carriages for hire. In the evening a public meeting was held in Allaya's Vadi under the chairmanship of Dr. M. M. Raiji. The meeting passed a resolution recording the services of the late Maulana, and expressing the city's great grief on account of the heavy loss which the country in general, and the Mahomedan community in particular, sustained by the death of Maulvi Mohomad-ul-Hussein.

Under the auspices of the local branch of the "Swarajja Sabha" a Conference of all the voters of the Surat District is to be held very shortly in Surat. Mr. V. J. Patel has agreed to preside over the deliberations of the Conference. Among the important resolutions to be adopted by the Conference, will be a resolution requesting the elected candidates to resign their seats, as they have been elected only by a negligible minority of voters.

The District Local Board, at its meeting the other day, has resolved to open a new Veterinary Dispensary, at Itarva, a village in the Jalalpore Taluka.

The City High School here, up to this time managed by Mr. Faizula Bhai Hamdani and others, is disaffiliated from the University. It has now been handed over to the Rashtriya Kelavin Mandal and is working on national lines.

PIR MOWLANA'S FAIR AT BANDRA.

NO DISTURBANCE REPORTED.

The Pir Mowlana Hurus (fair) which is annually held at Bandra under the shadow of the mausoleum of the late Pir Mowlana Mahomed Sufi Saheb came to a close on Monday the 6th instant,, having commenced on 27th November.

The formal permission as usual to hold hurus had been obtained from the Collector of Thana, the Selsette Development Officer, the District Superintendent of Police and the Bandra Municipality.

The late Pir was venerated in Bandra as a great Mahomedan saint. He died in 1910 and since then the Pir Mowlana Fair has become an annual fixture drawing crowds of visitors and devotees to the Pir's darga.

On the 26th November, the Bandra Police under Sec. 144 Cr. P. C., on the ground that there was fear of a breach of the peace owing to some friction between the Moojawars of the Pir's darga, namely the two brothers Sheik Ismael Sheik Oosman and Sheik Ebrahim Sheik Oosman on the one side and the khatuks (butchers) on the other side, called upon both the parties to appear before Mr. E. W. Perry, Sub-Divisional Magistrate, to show cause why the hurus should or should not be stopped.

Mr. J. Y. Dabholkar, High Court Pleader, appeared for the Moojawars and explained to the Court, that there was no valid reason why the hurus should not be held as usual.

Mr. Pandurang V. Patel, on behalf of the butchers urged that the hurus should not be allowed to be held.

PASSED OFF PEACEFULLY.

His worship in giving, his decision observed that he did not see any reason to interfere with the Collector's order permitting the holding of the hurus. If the butchers were themselves going to commit a breach of the peace he would have to bind them over, and if any one attempted to create a disturbance he should be at once hauled up before him. His worship also pointed out that if the butchers cared to attend the hurus peacefully they could do so, otherwise they had better remain at home, and thus there would be no cause for any breach of the peace.

The butchers of Bandra are a sensible people and evidently his worship's advice was prudently followed and the hurus passed off unmarred by any unpleasant incident, there being not even the usual special police from Thana detailed for duty in connection with the occasion.

The Sandal procession attended by vocal and instrumental music was well attended and the fair was wound up with a grand display of fireworks.

One very humane feature of the hurus was that a regular army of poor unfortunate beggars irrespective of caste or creed were comforted in their distress for which they blessed the Pir and the Pir's Moojawars. The first Moojawar of the Pir during his life-time was Sheik Enoos Sheik Oosman, the deceased brother of the present Moojawars and who was the founder of the family Moojawarship which has been ratified by the High Court of Bombay after a protracted litigation in the Thana Court in which the opponents of the family Moojawarship sought to create a wakf of the administration of the darga, which is now entirely in the hands of the surviving brothers of Sheik Enoos who was a well-known figure in Bandra in his day and who is buried quite in the rear of Pir Mowlana.

BOMBAY MARKET.

COTTON.

From Our Correspondent.

The Marwari Bazar opened this morning for Fully Good M. G. Broach at Rs. 347½ and after touching Rs. 348 eased down to Rs. 346½, and closed at Rs. 347. At Colaba the market opened at Rs. 346 declined to Rs. 345 and closed at Rs. 347.

Our market for ready cotton continues to remain very quiet, old cotton is altogether neglected, neither local spinners nor exporters are doing any business, inquiry for new cotton is also very moderate.

COLOUR-MARKET.

It is announced by Reuter that a protective measure is to be laid in U. K. to safe-guard the Dye-Stuff industry with a view to combat German Dyestuff industry. Indian interest from consumers standpoint lies in the introduction of a free-trade policy giving a full scope to the foreign Dye-Stuff manufacturing countries to compete in Indian markets. This necessarily will carry the market to the rock bottom prices, as a result of which the out-put of Dyed cloth would considerably increase to the advantage of the users. However we hope the Indian interest will not be sacrificed for the welfare of the British merchants and manufacturers.

The market has been excited here and the values in most of the highly concentrated Colours have advanced Congo-Red (Bolt) is quoted Rs. 5/8 per lb. Congo Red (Nizam) is almost equal in price to Bolt. Haven is quoted at Rs. 4/8 per lb. The demand is lively and stockists are in the market. Magenta-Crystals 8B. is quoted at Rs. 35 per lb. Magenta-Crystals (Zunda) is quoted between 21 to 25 per lb. The tone is firm and merchants expect increase in the values as the exchange is unfavourable and they fear that import of German stuff will be restricted.

The quotations are:—
Congo-Red (Nizam) Rs. 5/8/0 per lb.
Congo-Red (Bolt) Rs. 5/8/0 per lb.
Alizarine I. P. Rs. 900 per drum.
Alizarine (Ger) Rs. 260 to 275 per cwt.
Methyl Violet Rs. 10 per lb.
Scarlet (Murga) Rs. 6 per lb.
Auramine Rs. 8 to 9 per lb.
Magenta Crystals (Bolt) Rs. 20 per lb.
Magenta Crystals 8B. Rs. 35 per lb.
Magenta Crystals (Bagicah) Rs. 16 per lb.
Direct Green Rs. 6 per lb.

Opinions of the Day.

The "Our Money" Argument.

The "Mahratha".—If there be any one who is inclined to argue that Government have an our money, because it comes ultimately from the taxes paid by the people, let him only answer the following three questions. If Government grant is our own money, (1) Can we take as much of it as we want? (2) Can we use it as we like?, and (3) Can the people control, as much as Government, if not more, the conduct of the aided institutions? If all these questions are to be answered negatively, what wisdom is there in deluding ourselves into the conception that Government grant can be received in consistency with our self-respect?

Blind Misrepresentation.

"The Independent".—"The return of Mr. Chintamani for the Jhansi district" is treated by an Anglo-Indian Journal "as equivalent to another nail on the coffin of Non-Cooperation." But what are the facts? Out of 11,117 voters only 2,136 voted and of these only 1,168 voted for Mr. Chintamani. We are, of course, not concerned as to who voted for whom, but how many went to the polls. From the figures, we have given above, it is patent whether the Non-Cooperators have won or not. By the way, Mr. Chintamani wired to Mahatma Gandhi that the majority of the votes were for cooperation. However, the election figures have a different story to tell. There would be cause for jubilation, if majority of the voters had gone to the polls and voted. But it is notorious that Anglo-Indian newspapers are conveniently blind.

"We Must Despair!"

The "Hindu".—The immediate anxiety of India will, of course, be about the thirty thousand who are reported to be preparing to embark from the Fijian ports. It might be difficult to provide quick shipping facilities for such a large effiux and the regrettable consequence will be that the Indians might hang about the ports of Suva and Lautoka for months and months, spending all their earnings in the interval of waiting, to be faced at last with the alternative of a penurious return or a continuance of wretched misery in Fiji. We must despair, for we know it is a forlorn hope to appeal to the Government of India. There is, of course, another question: even if the shipping could be arranged would it be the best proceeding for the Fijian Indians, thus to return? This and the other aspects of this pressing problem in Fiji and, indeed, the whole question of Indians abroad, call for urgent consideration and it behoves all to ponder deeply over them so that they may be many thrashed out in the Nagpur Congress, which will certainly have to take them up in a thorough and systematic manner.

Savarkar Brothers.

The "Gujrati Punch".—The Royal Proclamation definitely lays down that let those who, in their zeal for political reform broke the law in the past respect it in the future, and if the Sawarkar brothers show their willingness to respect the law of the land in their future life, we believe they ought to be given a chance of doing it. Even the recent Resolution of the Government of India lays down that they do not want to interfere with the liberty of those who do not advocate, or incite people to, violence and here are two young men who are denied their liberty although they explicitly state that in view of the later developments in the political life of the country, violent or extreme methods are no longer necessary. The Government of India, however, have never shown any overflowing zeal for conforming professions to practice and the people of this country cannot be blamed if they hesitate to place an implicit faith in them any longer. Will the Government of India take this opportunity to prove by action rather than words that they are anxious to maintain the liberty of person of those who do not advocate violent methods of political agitation? Even apart from that the fact that the eldest brother, Mr. G. D. Savarkar, has been a victim to tuberculosis and stands in danger of losing his life unless he is restored to liberty is an additional reason why the Government of India should put an end to its wrath towards the Savarkar Brothers. Will, then, the Government show by practical example that they are not above all considerations of even humanity?

India and Colonies.

The "Rangoon Times".—It must be borne in mind that in regard to questions of immigration and emigration Britain and India are much nearer one another, owing to their full populations and their ancient, developed countries, than are Britain and the Colonies or India and the Colonies. But whereas the Colonies naturally welcome immigrants of their own kith and kin, whose ways and work they understand, it is equally natural that they should fight shy of Indians, whom they do not understand, whose particular capacities may not be what they need, and who, they dread, will undercut their labour and orientalise their country. What is needed, perhaps, is a wider appreciation and knowledge of the Indian mind, but the current attitude of Indians to Britain is hardly likely to encouraage that. We think that Indians have probably suffered much injustice in various British Colonies and possessions, but it would be impossible to judge how far their own methods, not necessarily self-consciously antagonistic, are responsible for that and how far the whole thing arises from a bugbear which a better appreciation will dissipate in the future.

THE LATE HAZRAT SHAIKHUL HIND

DELHI IN MOURNING.

From Our Correspondent.

DELHI, Dec. 2.

Delhi observed a complete hartal yesterday as a mark of mourning for the death of Hazrat Shaikhul Hind. In the evening a mass meeting comprising more than 15 thousand citizens was held, Hafiz Abdul Aziz presiding. The following resolutions were passed:—

We the citizens of Delhi assembled in a public meeting respectfully record our grief at the death of Hazrat Shaikhul Hind Maulana Mahmudul Hasan, famous dean of the celebrated university Deoband in whom India has lost one of her most illustrious and erudite Doctors of Divinity who by suffering incarceration at the age of seventy-one at hand of the British Government for the fearless assertion of his honest views should to the rest of the Moslem India the way of righteous conduct.

"This public meeting while placing on record its warm appreciation of the friendly feelings Col. Joshia Wedgewood has constantly evidenced towards India desires it to be distinctly understood that his recent suggestion that the forthcoming Congress should ask the Government to convene a Conference of leaders and appoint a period for the grant of the Colonial Home Rule (the British word to be pledged by no less eminent a personage than his serene Highnes Prince of Wales) is in nature of a compromise which cannot be acceptable to the advocates of the complete Swarajya, further in the opinion of this meeting the Congress as the exponent of India's true feelings and aspiration should do nothing to betray India's adamantine determination to have full Swarajya immediately."

"This meeting heartily Congratulates Principal Thadani of the Hindu College and those students who have asked the Trustees of the Hindu College to cease all connection with the Punjab University and Trusts that the Trustees will give a favourable consideration to this request. Further it requests Principal Rudra of the Stephen's College, who is one of the oldest and highly respected educationists of Delhi to come forward and put himself at the head of Non-Cooperation movement in relation to the academical institutions.

[We have received accounts of the condolence meetings held all over India in Memory of the late Maulana.]

consists in overcoming the cause of the trouble—the presence of excess acid in the stomach, which attacks its delicate lining and renders smooth, painless digestion impossible. For this purpose Bisurated Magnesia is unequalled, for it drives away all pain and flatulence the moment it enters the stomach. . . it does this by neutralising the acid, stopping fermentation, and smoothing the inflamed tissues. Try it! See how quickly the pain goes. However slight your trouble, get a bottle from your chemist TO-DAY. But be sure it is Bisurated Magnesia, every genuine package of which bears the name of the manufacturers, BISMAG LIMITED. A little thing to look for, but it's worth it, as it ensures your getting the kind that does you good.

PARIPAN

VARNISH ENAMEL

THE MORE YOU WASH IT THE BETTER IT BECOMES.

The Paripan Process of Painting has been used througout India both for Inside and Outside work for some years past. Its chief characteristics are Durability, Beauty of Finish and Resistance to the trying Climatic Conditions.

The modern house is not complete in its furnishing and appointments if Paripan is absent. No Landlord or Tenant realizes how easily and cheaply property is maintained in a new and spotless condition unless he has experience of Paripan.

House cleaning and the removal of grease, finger marks and dirt from the paint work and doors are processes never keenly sought after. Paripan reduces their unpleasantness to vanishing point.
